History of Arlington

BackHome

✿ Arlington, Oregon is located along the historic Oregon Trail. Many pioneers ventured through Arlington on their way westward along the trail. Look below for a photo of the pioneers traveling through Arlington.

✿ Arlington is located near the eastern entrance to the Columbia River Gorge. It was once located along the riverbank, but the town was relocated in the 1960s to remove it from the area behind the John Day dam.

Things To Do in Arlington

Trout Lake, Washington

and 11 Acres with Whitewater River Frontage Completely Set Up for Livestock for Sale

Mt Adams

Trout Lake, Washington

Trout Lake is a small, peaceful town in Klickitat County with spectacular views and hiking trails that go forever. It is approximately 8 miles from the foot of Mt Adams on Highway 141, and 24 miles from the Columbia River. It is bordered on two sides by National forest, and the rest is State or privately owned.

Trout Lake has it's own post office, country store, beauty salon, full service gas station, and a craft and gift store. We have a women's quilting group, a fantastic book club, and other interesting groups and clubs. The school is modern with an excellent staff and offers education from pre-school to graduation. Even those who are not parents show up for sports events! This warm and friendly town is a perfect place to raise children in a natural, wholesome environment.

Trout Lake also has the largest organic herb farm in the United States, Certified organic by the Washington State Department of Agriculture. Trout Lake Farm grows more than 70 botanicals without the use of synthetic chemical pesticides, fertilizers or herbicides. The farm produces 3 million pounds of herbs each year, including echinacea, chamomile and St. John's Wort. They also have an organic dairy and you can buy their wonderful milk at the local store in town.

Trout Lake and the surrounding area offer endless opportunities for camping, hiking, fishing, mushroom picking, photography, bird watching, white water rafting, boating, kayaking, mountain biking, hunting, rock climbing, skiing, snowmobiling, and horseback riding. This area is building quite a reputation for endurance riding on the endless trails. If you prefer hiking to horseback riding, you can go to Killen Creek Trail, follow it the 3.1 miles to the Pacific Crest Trail, and hike about a half-mile north to a huge glacial basin and meadow highlighted by a waterfall and super view of Adams Glacier.

We also enjoy some of the most beautiful and rare wild flowers found anywhere, Ice Caves formed ages ago by molten lava, and the Sawtooth huckleberry fields. The White Salmon River is close by and a favorite for kayaking, river rafting, and excellent fishing. Or paddle your canoe and explore Trout Lake Creek, just outside of town. If you like fresh air, clean water and nature, Trout Lake is a slice of Heaven.

The Cascade Mountains form the backbone of Washington, separating the moist and mild coastal side from the drier interior. The range begins in Canada and extends to California. Although less familiar to many people due to its remote location, Mount Adams, at 12,276, is actually higher than the more famous mounts Baker, St Helens, and Hood. It lies about 30 miles east of Mount St Helens and 30 miles north of the Columbia River. The surrounding area forms the Mount Adams Wilderness boasting, 47,270 acres and 64 miles of trail. It starts 9 miles north of Trout Lake on the west slope of Mount Adams in the Gifford Pinchot National Forest.

The Gifford Pinchot National Forest contains 1.37 million acres straddling the crest of the Cascades from the Columbia River north to Mount Rainier National Park. There are more than 30 campgrounds, two major mountains, more than 1,000 miles of trail, about 4,000 miles of roads. There are six wilderness areas in the Gifford Pinchot National Forest: Indian Heaven, Trapper Creek, Mount Adams, Goat Rocks, Tatoosh and Glacier View, plus a small portion of the William O. Douglas Wilderness Area.

If the town of Trout Lake, and the spacious surrounding area, sound like the type of place you would enjoy living, you can buy our piece of paradise. Our Ranch and our llamas are all for sale! Our 11 acre property has whitewater river frontage on the White Salmon River. There is a covered wrap around porch on two sides, also a covered deck on the river side. The house is only 30 ft from the river. The house is 2,380 sq ft plus an attached garage. Some of the features of this 3 bedroom 2 bath home are; wall to wall carpeting and ceramic tile floors, heat pump, central air conditioning, gourmet kitchen, breakfast nook, den/library/office, workshop, double pane and/or storm insulated windows, pantry, utility room, wrap around porches, and both mountain and river views. Add the barns, other outbuildings, dog run, gardens and the riverfront in your back yard, and what more could you want? Just click on this link to see photos and read more.

Trout Lake, Washington

Some places seem to shimmer with magic and Trout Lake, in the emerald green of Washington state, sings of beauty and fascinating adventures to explore and enjoy. Our area offers things such as...

Hiking trails of varied difficulty to allow all hikers, great and small, to enjoy the experience.

Big Lava Bed of major geologic interest, 12,500 acres of sculptural shapes, caves and crevasses.

Indian Heaven Wilderness is one of the largest wilderness areas in the U S and The Pacific Crest Trail passes through it.

Great fishing, salmon and trout abound.

White water rafting, some of the best rafting and kayaking adventures on the White Salmon River.

Huckleberries free for the picking in late summer. People from all over come for these.

Mushrooms are abundant in April, May and in the fall.

Board-sailing on the Columbia is some of the best in the world. Trout Lake is only 25 miles away.

Mount Adams has some of the best all year around cross-country skiing in the West.

Mountain climbing is also popular on Mount Adams.

Ice Caves formed by molten lava.

Camp grounds throughout the area.

Wildflowers, some of the most beautiful and rare found anywhere.
